

A scarce English plan of Rome

SENEX, John.

A New Mapp of Rome Shewing its Antient and Present Scituation. Most humbly Insscrib'd to His Grace The Duke of Queensbury and Dover.

London, c.1721. 490 x 585mm.

£1,100

A detailed map of Rome, engraved by John Harris after the plan by Giovanni Battista Falda, with a huge, 252-point key. In the four corners are insets of the Colosseum, St Peter's Basilica, the Pyramid of Gaius Cestius Gallus and Trajan's Column.

Stock ID :23926