Publication: Cologne: Johann Bussemacher, 1600,
German text edition. 210 x 305mm.

Condition: Small hole with old patch.

DESCRIPTION:

An early map of Sicily with ornate cartouches for the title and scale, the Sicilian coat of arms and an inset portrait of Philip II of Spain (1527-1598), who was also King of Sicily.

The map was engraved by Johann Bussemacher for Quad's 'Geographisch Handtbuch'. A Latin-text version, 'Fasciculus Geographicus', was published in 1608. A fine dark impression.
