

The Roman Province Of 'Africa'.

£400

Additional Information

Dimensions	525 × 375 mm
Cartographer	JANSSON, Jan.
Date	1662
Extra Info	Africae Propriae Tabula. In qua Punica regna uides Tyrios et Agenoris urbem.
Publication	Amsterdam, 1662, Latin text edition. Original colour. 375 x 525mm.
Condition	Split in centre fold restored.
References	VAN DER KROGT: 1:405.6.

Product Description

A historical map of the Roman province of Africa, founded after the fall of Cathage in 146BC, covering the coastal regions of modern Tunisia and Libya, with Carthage the most prominent city. This map appeared in Volume 6 of the 'Atlas Major', the historical atlas.