

A 16Th Century Woodcut Map Of The Exodus

£400

Additional Information

Dimensions	375 × 210 mm
Cartographer	BÜNTING, Heinrich.
Date	1581
Extra Info	Reisen der Kinder von Israel aus Egypten.
Publication	Magdeburg, 1581, German edition. Woodcut, sheet 310 x 375mm.
Condition	trimmed at sides, affecting labels outside printed borders, printer's creases.
References	LAOR: 142.

Product Description

A map of the route taken by the Jews from Egypt to the Promised Land. Points of interest include Pharaoh drowning in the Red Sea and Jonah on the back of a whale in the Mediterranean. The Israelites' route goes around Petra, the city that had been lost since classical times, and only rediscovered in the 19th century.

The map was published in 'Itinerarium Sacrae Scripturae', Bunting's re-imagining of the Bible as a travel book.